

March Newsletter 🐣

Lots of new things have been hatching at Junction Arts this month including two new exhibitions, an egg-citing announcement and an award win!

Chesterfield Children's Festival 2024!

The Chesterfield Children's Festival will return to Queen's Park on the 27th and 28th of July. This year's event is being organised with the help of local young people and will include live movie sets, catwalks, an aerial workshop for babies and family life drawing!

FIND OUT MORE

Self-Expression - A Next Gen Exhibition

We are super proud of our Next Gen group who curated and marketed their own art exhibition this week. Self Expression featured the group's best work created during the Next Gen sessions, with portraits, pottery, postcards and spray-painted artwork on display.

Be Part of The Chesterfield Postcard Show!

Submissions are now open for The Chesterfield Postcard Show!
This year's show is entitled 'Memories Are Made of This', artists of all abilities are invited to be part of the exciting exhibition, all you need to do is submit a postcard-size piece of art by the 24th of April 2024.

FIND OUT MORE

Junction Arts Wins Champion Charity Award!

We were delighted to receive the Champion Charity award at the BrightLife Champions Against Loneliness Awards 2024, on Saturday 16th March.

The awards acknowledge and reward those members of the public who have been champions against loneliness in Chesterfield, Bolsover, & NE Derbyshire.

FIND OUT MORE

Creswell Gets More Creative

In March our Creswell Gets More Creative participants enjoyed a visit to Heather Brown's art studio in Ripley for a candle-making workshop, we also paid a visit to the Denby Pottery Village for lunch. Later in the month, ceramicist, Lynne Staniland, showed us how to make a coiled pot!

FIND OUT MORE

This Girl Codes Showcase 2024

This month we launched the This Girl Codes Showcase to celebrate all the great work produced during the project over the last nine months. The exciting exhibition is on display at Creswell Crags Museum until the 25th April.

FIND OUT MORE

Our Final Cosy Crafts

Our final Cosy Crafts session was facilitated by artist and participant, Vivian, who taught us all about Japanese Pastel Nagomi Art, it was brilliant!

The new community warm space ran for eight weeks, with over 100 participants. A big thank you to everyone who came along and to our partners, Derbyshire County Council.

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

ARTS CO
ENGLA