

May Newsletter 🕶️

Welcome to our May newsletter! This month we're looking ahead to an exciting summer of shows and festivals, read on to find out how you can get involved...

NEW FESTIVAL SPONSOR

A huge thank you to Chesterfield-based DBCP, our new sponsor for the Chesterfield Children's Festival! Their donation of £4000 will go towards an arts commission that will see musicians and storytellers work with local young people to create a new piece of music that will be performed at the festival.

FIND OUT MORE

VOLUNTEER WITH US!

Would you like to be creative, develop your skills and meet new people? If the answer is yes, then you could be the volunteer we're looking for! We are growing our team of volunteers, click the link to find out more.

APPLY NOW!

RECORD-BREAKING YEAR FOR THE CHESTERFIELD POSTCARD SHOW 2024!

We're celebrating our most successful Postcard Show yet, with 472 submissions, over 20 visitors and £1,088 raised through postcard sales and donations! Thank you to everyone who submitted artwork, visited the exhibition or bought a postcard!

READ THE FULL STORY

2 MONTHS TO GO!

The countdown has started! In just 8 weeks we will be kicking off a weekend of FREE family fun at Queen's Park, Chesterfield! You can find out everything you need to know in the link below - see you there!

DON'T MISS WITHOUT MALICE OR ILL WILL

We're proud to be supporting local actor Ray Castleton, as he embarks on a new tour of his award-winning play; Without Malice Or Ill Will, 40 years on from the 1984 miner's strike.

Ray will be performing his one-man show in venues across Derbyshire throughout June and July. For a full list of venues and dates see the link below.

FIND OUT MORE

Junction Arts is supported and funded by:

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

