

FREE Sexual health Network event -Promoting Inclusivity & Reducing Stigma – spaces still available

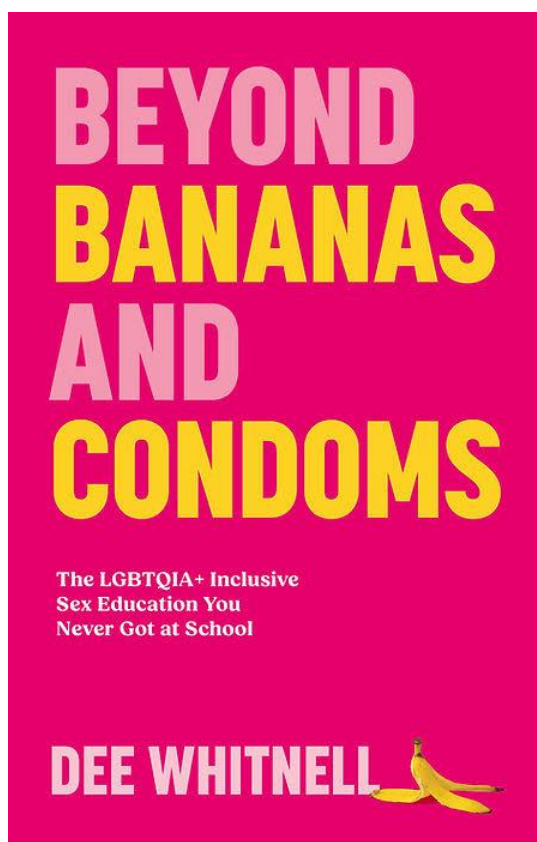

We're thrilled to invite you to May's Sexual Health Promotion Network event — and trust us, you won't want to miss this one!

We're welcoming the incredible Dee Whitnell (they/them) — a multi-award-winning LGBTQIA+ sex educator, content creator (@s3xtheorywithdee), and passionate advocate for inclusive, empowering sexual health education.

Dee has spent years working with young people, schools, and organisations like Brook Sexual Health, Fumble, and The Proud Trust — not to mention leading corporate workshops that bring much-needed conversations into the mainstream.

They're also the brilliant mind behind the Amazon bestseller Beyond Bananas and Condoms — an LGBTQIA+ inclusive RSHE guide that's changing the game for sex education.

On top of all that, Dee is the founder of the UK solidarity campaign Trans Kids Deserve To Grow Up, offering vital resources and support for trans youth and families, while also shining a light on LGBTQIA+ topics as a freelance journalist.
