

The Colour of my Heart

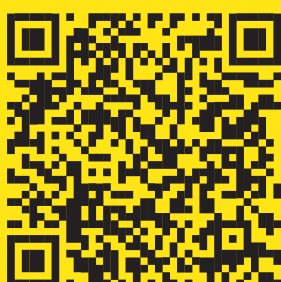

Motivational presentation by the author of 'The Colour of my Heart', Deniz 'Skip' Önaç

Monday 6 October, 1pm to 2pm

Committee room 1 at the Town Hall

The Chesterfield Equality and Diversity Forum would like to invite you to an afternoon with Deniz 'Skip' Önaç. Skip will share his story about the transformational effect the island and culture of Jamaica had on him, his experiences combating racism and how he now encourages audiences to embrace relationships, irrespective of ethnicity, religion, colour or nationality.

This session is open to all and is free of charge, but places are limited. Places will be confirmed via email.

To book a place and to inform us of any accessibility or dietary requirements, please complete the booking form by scanning the QR code or call the Policy team on 01246 959644
